

Weekend Away Speaker

Paul Francis

Paul is Leader of Glenwood Church in Llanedeyrn, Cardiff, a non-denominational church with a large congregation of more than 300 people. Under Paul's leadership Glenwood has developed into a successful and dynamic church, with a visionary outreach programme. It plants itself in the heart of the community, through its Bar None project, which meets in a pub and aims to 'bar none that are looking for answers or a place to ask questions'. Glenwood also has a pro-active youth group and supports the homeless with a hands on programme of activity.

Paul has also set up and is the director of 'Going Public' which is a Christian charity based in Cardiff. The charity models hope and wholeness in Jesus to young people, families and communities through creative communication. It also supports and resurces the ministry of churches and Christian organisations in South Wales and the South Wales Valleys. Finally, they train and empower young Christians in service and ministry.

Paul is also a writer and recently wrote the book 'Help Your Kids Stay Drug Free', as well as a speaker around the country, particularly working with the national family charity, Care for the Family.

We are looking forward to hearing God speak to us through Paul and pray for him.

Hebron Hall

Set in 7.5 acres of grounds, Hebron Hall Christian Centre is located on the outskirts of the village of Dinas Powys, four miles south west of Cardiff, within the beautiful Vale of Glamorgan.

Many of the bedrooms are 'family type' rooms with some smaller rooms for single people or couples.

There are plenty of leisure facilities to enjoy including a games room with snooker, pool and table tennis tables, a small sports hall, tennis courts, comfortable tv lounges and not forgetting - the indoor heated 20 metre swimming pool.

Check out the Hebron Hall website for full details of the accommodation and facilities - www.hebronhall.org
